

15 November 2024

ROOM 5, Faculty of Law, via Rosmini, 27 -Trento

How to open up clinical and research data
The interplay between rules, standards and practices

The topics covered in the event are inherent to the research conducted within the project PRIN 2022:
"Clinical trial data between privatization of knowledge and Open Science (acronym: CLIPKOS)"

9.00-9.30 Welcome greetings and presentation of the conference program

Roberto Caso and Paolo Guarda, University of Trento
Paolo Carta, Dean of the Faculty of Law, University of Trento
Francesca Demichelis, Vice-Rector for research, University of Trento

9.30-12.00 First Session - Clinical Data and Intellectual Property Rights

Moderator: Roberto Caso, University of Trento

Silvio Garattini, Istituto Mario Negri - I have a dream: public research without IP in the pharmaceutical sector

Gideon Parchomovsky, University of Pennsylvania Law School - Patent Monopsonies

Richard Gold, McGill University Faculty of Law - Regulatory Exclusivities as a Substitute for Patent Rights

Maurizio Borghi, University of Turin - Disclosure obligations and trade secrets protection in the EU: shifting the boundaries

Ana Santos Rutschman, Charles Widger School of Law - Villanova University - Vaccine R&D Data as Infrastructure

14.00-15.30 Second session - Research Data and Privacy

Moderator: Paolo Guarda, University of Trento

Donrich Thaldar, University of KwaZulu-Natal - Open enough? Evaluating the new Model Law on Health Data

Giorgia Bincoletto, University of Trento - Openness vs. control. The role of privacy and exclusivities on the confidentiality of pharmaceutical test data

Manuela Bocchino, Istituto Superiore di Sanità - The role of digital health and telemedicine in clinical and research data collection: a SWAT analysis

15.30-16.30 Roundtable

Moderator: Lucia Busatta, University of Trento

Maria Chiara Pievatolo, University of Pisa

Valentina Colcelli, Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche

Nicoletta Dentico, Society for International Development (SID)

16.30 Closing of the Conference

Scientific Committee: Roberto Caso, Paolo Guarda, Giorgia Bincoletto (University of Trento)